ALL PRO DAD'S BREAKFAST

All Pro Dads Breakfast ~ Wednesday, October 25, 8am in the Gym!

What is All Pro Dad? It is a national program that provides an opportunity for dads to spend quality time with their children. Such time will strengthen their relationship, as well as benefiting the child's school and their entire community.

Our own Head Football Coach, Guy Gardner, is excited to share his personal thoughts on parenting and how his 'Special Team' has helped him win over his kids off the field and in his home. You and your sons and daughters are invited to a free breakfast with Guy as he shares his experiences with positive role models and mentors.

And don't forget...subscribe to the "Play of the Day" at allprodad.com. You will receive daily powerful and practical fatherhood tips emailed directly to your inbox! All Pro Dad is on mission to help you love and lead your family well. Be a hero to your kids!

Please RSVP to Diane Imbach at dimbach22@aol.com and include names/grades of students coming with you!

FAFSA WORKSHOP

Seniors need to submit the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) to the colleges to which they are applying in order to determine if they are eligible for any financial aid awards. To help you fill out this form, PVHS will be hosting a FAFSA WORKSHOP on Thursday, October 26, at 6:30 pm in the OAR.

Jessica Medina, Assistant Director of the Financial Aid Office at the University of Southern California, will be going through the FAFSA line by line and answering ANY questions that you may have.

This program is targeted for parents of seniors. However, it may also be helpful for parents of juniors to attend in order to gain an understanding of the information needed to fill out this form next year!

APYLP CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITY FOR JUNIORS & SENIORS

The APYLP (Asian Pacific Youth Leadership Project) reaches out to Asian and Pacific Islander youth in California to build on their understanding of what it means to be Asian and Pacific Islander American students in today's culturally and ethnically diverse society. The high school conference offers group workshops on leadership development, cultural identity and awareness, the legislative process, and public speaking skills as well as an opportunity to participate in mock legislative sessions and to hear from elected officials and prominent speakers from the Asian and Pacific Islander community.

50 juniors and seniors will be selected from the statewide applicants to participate in the conference on March 22-25, 2018 in Sacramento. The APYLP will pay all expenses for the participants including travel, lodging, and meal expenses through sponsorships from private corporations, higher education institutions, professional organizations, and other individuals.

Applications must be postmarked no later than Wednesday, October 25th. For more information and to download an application, visit the APYLP website at <http://www.apylp.org>.

OUTSIDE OPPORTUNITIES:

The 2018 Ignite LA Fellowships are currently open to Los Angeles County high school sophomores and juniors. This opportunity sends students on an all-expenses-paid Earthwatch expedition over the summer to conduct hands-on scientific research in the field at a variety of locations throughout the country. The fellowship looks for students with energy, creativity, and a passion to learn, and is not based on academic performance (grades, GPA, test scores, etc.). Applications are due by December 1st at earthwatch.org/ignite.

The Diamond Challenge is a global venture concept competition open to all students around the world who have a love for entrepreneurship. It was created in 2012 by the University of Delaware.

There are no stipulations to apply to the University of Delaware for those who participate. The competition offers two unique tracks-Business or Social Venture-and both are based on the emerging science of evidence-based entrepreneurship, which combines academic research as well as real-world and industry best practices. This year there is a prize pool of up to $100,000. If interested, please log onto www.diamondchallenge.org for more information.

The Los Serenos de Point Vicente Junior Docent Program is open to Peninsula, Palos Verdes and Chadwick high school students. The program was designed to complement the existing educational and support activities provided by the members of Los Serenos including museum tours, hikes support, whale wagon duty and special event participation. Beyond the eight weeks of training classes and 36 hours of annual commitment, the program currently includes activities such as field trips to the tide pools at Abalone Cove and opportunities to hone presentation and public speaking skills. If interested in becoming a Junior Docent, please log onto the following link for more information/application: http://www.losserenos.org/jd_info_form.html
