PRESS-FRIENDS

PressFriends is holding a training for new student volunteers on Saturday, January 20th from 2:00-3:15pm at the Peninsula Center Library in the Community Room.

PressFriends is a fun way to make a difference. They work with elementary students in the Title 1 elementary schools, boys & girls clubs, the Cabrillo Marine Aquarium, and Richstone Family Center. They were founded by kids for kids in 2008 and today are still an all-volunteer and student-run organization. They have over 100 chances to volunteer every year and mentor 400 underserved youth annually. They also have leadership opportunities after you volunteer 25 hours in one year in their afterschool newspaper clubs and high school student board members have gone on to Univ of Pennsylvania, Univ of Michigan, Univ of Virginia, USC, NYU, John Hopkins, UC Berkeley, UCSB, UCI, Clemson, Purdue, Villanova, Chapman, Marquette, LMU and many more! For more information and to signup visit bitly.com/PF12018.

JAPANESE CULTURE CLUB

The Japanese Culture Club is making mochi Mon, January 22nd. Anyone interested in trying mochi or likes mochi should show up. For anyone who doesn't know what mochi is: Mochi is a type of bread made from a special type of rice that is traditionally pounded until it is an elastic and sticky blob of warm goodness. Room 314 during Lunch. Hope to see everyone there!

NHS TUTORING

There is daily tutoring being offered by the NHS in Room 410 at lunch.

LOS ANGELES BRAIN BEE

The Brain Bee allows students to learn more about neuroscience and compete with their peers for a chance to participate at the National Brain Bee in Baltimore, MD! Students do not need prior knowledge in neuroscience to participate. It is recommended that students prepare for the event by downloading the following books: Neuroscience: the Science of the Brain https://www.bna.org.uk/static/docs/BNA_English.pdf and Brain Facts www.brainfacts.org.

During the competition, students will take a written exam and a practical exam involving human brain anatomy, in order to test their knowledge in basic neuroanatomy as well as principles in neuroscience. All exam questions will be taken from the books listed above.

As a part of the event, students will:

- (1) Participate in interactive demonstrations about neuroscience and the brain
- (2) Meet neuroscience professionals and students
- (3) Go on campus and lab tours at the USC Health Science Campus
- (4) Enjoy a complimentary lunch

Registration is free, and the event is scheduled for Saturday, February 3rd, 2018 from 9am to 4pm at the University of Southern California Zilkha Neurogenetic Institute (ZNI). To register and for more information please visit our website at: <http://losangelesbrainbee.com/> or see the attached flyer.
