CAPITOL CONVOY 2020

Applications Due Monday, December 9th

Be a part of this unique PTSA Program where you will travel to Sacramento and represent our school district!

Application and FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions) posted on PVHS.pvpusd.net (see School Info/PTSA)

---

Questions? Email pvhsPTSA7thvp@gmail.com
(PTSA 7th VP, Legislation Mrs. Conlon & Mrs. Kwon)

What is it? Capitol Convoy is a unique PTSA program sponsored by the Palos Verdes Peninsula Council of PTAs. The program is designed to acquaint PVPUSD students with advocacy and the legislative process. PVPUSD is the only school district in California that sends a convoy (typically 65-70 people) to Sacramento each year to advocate on various issues pertaining to education and our district. It is a great opportunity for students to gain hands-on experience in civic engagement.

Who Attends? Capitol Convoy is open to students from Palos Verdes High School, Peninsula High School and Rancho Del Mar. Additionally, the Convoy includes PVPUSD parents, teachers/principals from the high school, intermediate, and elementary schools, a School Board member, a District Office administrator and the PVP Council President.

When & Where? Two-day trip to Sacramento on March 17-18, 2020 (Tues-Weds). This is an excused absence; students are responsible for all missed school work. There are also three mandatory planning meetings in Feb/March that are required (see dates on application).

Cost? PVHS PTSA will cover the trip costs for PVHS students; this includes airfare, lodging, meals and transportation to/from PVHS and LAX.

Application Due Date? Friday, December 6, 2019

Why Should I Apply? Students will be a part of an exciting two-day trip to the State Capitol and gain a general understanding of both the education issues affecting our district and the legislative process. Students will work together with other students, parents and teachers/administrators. They will be grouped into small teams and have the opportunity to meet with various senators and assemblymembers and their staff to discuss/advocate the selected education issues on behalf of PVPUSD. The trip will also include discussions with expert speakers, a live viewing of the Senate Education Committee meeting, a guided tour of the Capitol Building, and dinner with a State Senator.

Who Should Apply? Students who have a keen interest in government, advocacy, public policy and/or education issues or students who want to learn more about civic engagement. No prior experience is required. Each applicant will be interviewed at PVHS by the PTSA Legislative Representatives and a school administrator in December. Selected students will be notified within 2 weeks.
