VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

PRESSFRIENDS NEW VOLUNTEER TRAINING—APRIL 20

Are you ready to make a difference in the lives of underserved youth - and have fun at the same time? PressFriends was founded in 2008 by local kids to make writing fun for kids. PressFriends was led this year by two PVHS students, Hana Meroth and Alec Berry. They oversaw 200 student volunteers who mentored 500 underserved elementary students in afterschool and weekend newspaper clubs. In addition, we have a full summer of volunteering. Our summer programs include TheatreFriends, STEMFriends, SportsFriends, ArtFriends, DanceFriends, MusicFriends, EcoFriends, MUNFriends, BookFriends, and CraftFriends. If you are able to attend the April 20th training, you can also volunteer at PressFriends 10th Annual Conference for Elementary Student Newspapers at the Huntington Library on May 11th and earn 8 service hours! Sign up for the April 20th training at <http://bit.ly/PF042019> or for the June 9th training at <http://bit.ly/PF060919>. Check us out at www.facebook.com/pressfriends, www.instagram.com/pressfriends, www.twitter.com/pressfriends, and www.pressfriends.org.

OUTSIDE OPPORTUNITIES

GIRLS WHO CODE is a free introductory summer immersion computer science program for girls going into their junior or senior year of high school. During a seven week program, participants learn about computer science, gain exposure to tech jobs, and join a national sisterhood of girls who are using computer science to become change-makers. This program is hosted at major tech companies across the United States, so girls get a firsthand look at what it's like to work in computing and are able to envision their own futures in this field. For further information, please click on the following website: <https://girlswhocode.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/categories/202681357-Summer-Immersion-Program->
