Are you ready to make a difference in the lives of underserved youth - and have fun at the same time? PressFriends was founded in 2008 by local kids to make writing fun for kids. PressFriends was led this year by two PVHS students, Hana Meroth and Alec Berry. They oversaw 200 student volunteers who mentored 500 underserved elementary students in afterschool and weekend newspaper clubs. In addition, we have a full summer of volunteering. If you are able to attend the April 20th training, you can also volunteer at PressFriends 10th Annual Conference for Elementary Student Newspapers at the Huntington Library on May 11th and earn 8 service hours!
