Los Angeles Mission Thanksgiving Food Drive

- Nearly 59,000 people in Los Angeles County are experiencing homelessness. And each person has a story - whether it be fleeing from domestic violence, battling with mental illness, or not being able to find or keep a job.
- The Los Angeles Mission is recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic. We all can help. PVHS is hosting a canned food drive to help rebuild the Mission's stock of canned food items.
- Please leave canned goods in the red or black plastic bins before taking your student ID photo or in front of Room 318 - PVHSCCC. ALL non-perishable food items are welcome! Your donation is much appreciated and desperately needed at this time! Thank you, Sea Kings, for your generosity & kindness.

AP CAPSTONE Requests for Expert Advisers

Dear PVPUSD Community:

Each year, juniors and seniors from PVHS and PVPHS take Advanced Placement (AP) Research, a multi-disciplinary class that is the second of the two-year AP Capstone course. As part of this course, we conduct thorough, original independent research culminating in the writing of our own college-level academic papers and presenting our work to a panel audience.

To help us facilitate this research, we are allowed to be in contact with Expert Advisers – faculty members, academics, those of higher education, and the like. Within the larger community of our school district is a wide network of such professionals that we'd be humbled and grateful to call our Expert Advisers.

Each student has compiled a list of people they'd like to work with. Whether it's getting advice, an interview, access to specific resources, or mentorship, your help is greatly appreciated. Beside each student's name is their preferred method of contact. Because some of our research is dependent on access to resources, please reach out to us by NOVEMBER 6.

Please review the following. Each topic makes varied (and some overlapping) requests.

If you can help, please use this FORM to submit your contact information. THANK YOU!
