MARCH 7TH @ 6PM
Followed by a choice of workshops 7:00pm-8:30pm

SOPHOMORE & JUNIOR STUDENTS & FAMILIES

The college admissions landscape is ever-changing, no more so than in these past few years. Increased competition at highly selective institutions, financial aid policies and changes in standardized testing are just a few of the major issues of recent admission cycles that students must consider in researching colleges and building a viable college list. Please join us as we host Ffiona Rees, Deputy Director Admissions at the most applied to university in America, as we kick-off our College Planning Guidance series of workshops:

Lafayette College: Highly Selective Liberal Arts Colleges: Are you a great fit?

Syracuse University: How To Choose a College Major

Texas Christian University: Out of State does not mean Out of the Budget- Opportunities for Merit Scholarship & Financial Aid outside of CA!

University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign: STEM Careers and Preparing to Apply to a STEM Major
