Webinar - November 10th @ 7pm

Athletic recruitment at the NCAA, NAIA, and Junior College levels is not passive. Waiting to be discovered often leads to missed opportunities. In this session, Chuck Liddiard, Founder & Executive Director of The Paratum Scholars, will teach students and parents how to:

- Take ownership of the recruiting process
- Communicate effectively with college coaches
- Understand key recruiting timelines
- Balance athletics with academics

Families will leave with a deeper understanding of the process and a clear strategy for the road ahead. This session is valuable for student-athletes in every grade, and it is never too early (or too late) to start planning.
